DEDICATION TO PEACE

The heroic qualities, courage, chivalry, unselfishness, have a great function in the service of peace. There is not one of us who would not be awakened by the thought of having a part, however humble, in this noble adventure—to rescue civilization and perhaps our life itself from destruction. The army which we shall form is fighting not for some sordid peace which heretofore has been the result of the warfare between nations, but a spiritual revolution which will excel our material progress. With us rests the decision whether progress which beginning in Slime and ending in Man shall continue beyond and above Man or whether it shall retrogress into the Slime from which it arose. If ever there was a Renaissance of the Spirit it is in this in which the least of us is privileged to serve.

The spirit of mankind is nothing but the animation of each and every one of us. To reclaim the world we must first reclaim ourselves. There is something that each of us can do. We can dedicate ourselves, heart, mind, and soul to cultivating the spirit vitalized by love and ruled by reason, in ourselves first, later in others. As one gives his life to the services of his country, so we can devote our life in this time of supreme need, to the cause of humanity. This spirit although in the minority at the present time, will grow through this new movement which we shall instigate, until it sweeps the earth and transforms the world. Meanwhile, to those of us who do not claim genius and were not born for leadership, the demand is yet urgent. Civilization may be laid to waste. Civilization must be preserved. Will you help?

PRESIDENT HAMILTON HOLT

Just before President Roosevelt honored Rollins with his presence, two students brought into my office for a social call a distinguished representative of a distinguished inter-collegiate association. This gentleman had some very pleasant things to say of Rollins as a result of his short stay on our campus, but he spent not a little of his time in denouncing the President of the United States. He even went so far as to state that Rollins College should not have permitted the chief magistrate a hearing on the campus.

I could not help wondering while our friend was talking what would have happened to him if in the presence of three witnesses he had similarly attacked Stalin in Russia, Hitler in Germany, or Mussolini in Italy. Would he not have been instantly imprisoned, if not shot at sunrise?

I congratulated the gentleman that he lived in a country where he could freely express his opinion of men in high office without fear of dire consequences, but I felt that he should be the last one to wish to abridge in others the right which he himself enjoyed.

I don't know whether there is a lesson in all this for the Senior Class of 1936, but there has been one in it for me.

TO THE CLASS OF 1936

WINSLOW S. ANDERSON

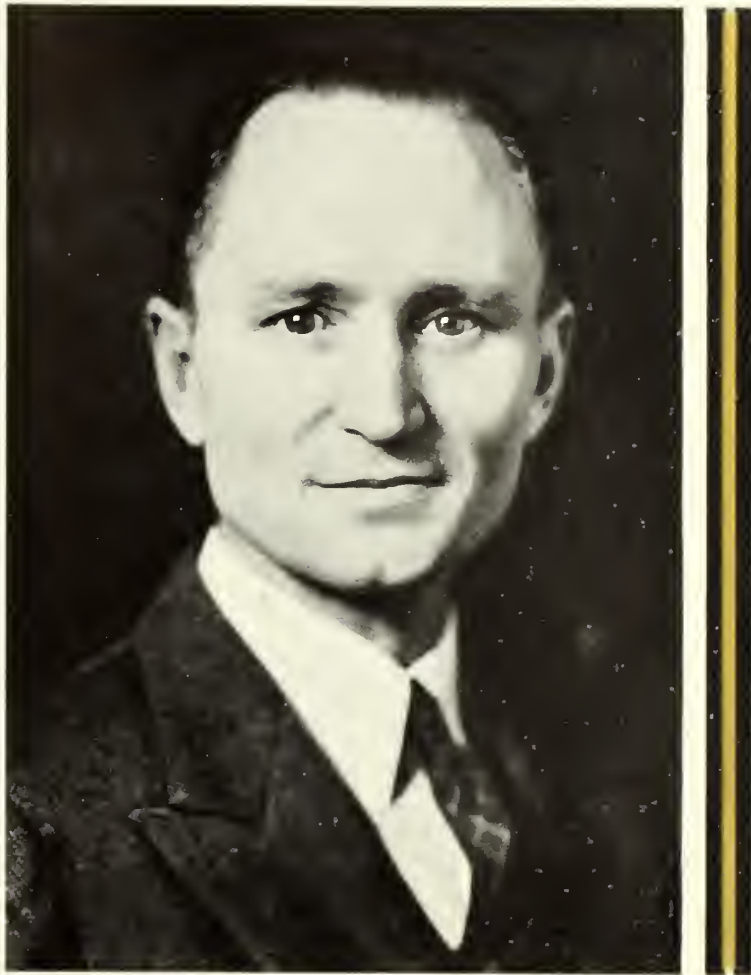

You are now completing four years at Rollins. I hope they have been happy and worthwhile. You have made friends not alone with students but with those of the faculty and administration whose pleasure it has been to guide you. Let me urge you to continue these friendships, for you will find them a continual source of strength and satisfaction.

For four years you have been privileged to share in the progress of Rollins College. However, because you are being graduated does not mean you are to lose that privilege. In fact, new opportunities will be yours to add to the prestige and honor of your Alma Mater. A college achieves its real reputation through the success of its graduates.

With your degree you have reached a milestone to which you looked forward when you entered Rollins, but I hope you will not consider it the end of your journey or the completion of your education. On the contrary, it is but the beginning, and you are now assuming an obligation to press on, ever learning, ever growing.

You came to Rollins in order to prepare yourself for useful service. Most of you were here through the sacrifice of parents or relatives. You can justify this sacrifice in no better way than ever striving to serve. You are being graduated at a time when the world faces a most critical period, when calm intelligence is needed. A great opportunity lies before you. May you rise to the full achievement of it.

ERVIN T. BROWN

After Commencement every member of the Class of '36 automatically becomes a freshman in the University of Life. Those older than yourselves have the entrenched positions of power in the business and social world. To compete with these leaders you must be ready to assume many challenging responsibilities.

Those who do only what they are told to do, or paid to do, receive few promotions and little recognition. The men and women who reach the top not only accept responsibility, but create their own opportunities as well. While the masses may drift, these leaders are their own taskmasters.

Ten years ago President Holt boldly announced that it was his ambition to make Rollins the finest small liberal arts college in America. This is not an unusual desire; perhaps hundreds of college presidents cherish the same hope. Most of them, however, are unwilling to undergo the inevitable drudgery or accept the responsibility necessary to achieve such an ambition. But President Holt is different. Obstacles and disappointments have but strengthened his determination. If every friend of Rollins could catch the enthusiasm of its President and share these aspirations the progress of your Alma Mater during the next ten years would make the accomplishments of the past decade appear insignificant by comparison.

If at Rollins you have learned to accept responsibility and to consider obstacles as stepping stones to success you are fortunate indeed. You will succeed.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT-FACULTY DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE

This organization, composed of Dean Anderson, Dean Enyart, Dean Sprague, three faculty members and six members of the student body, has the final word in deciding most of the disciplinary measures of the college. Few cases are handled during the year, but it is essential that those who allegedly violate the bonds which bind the college community be given a chance to state their cases before a representative body, before the college can reach a final decision.

As well qualified as the Rollins administration is, it is natural that the students themselves are often better fitted to handle specific cases than is the faculty. It is also by virtue of this committee that the student body may have a constructive part in formulating regulations. The success of any college is especially dependent on the wholehearted co-operation of the total organization, students, faculty, and finally of the town in which it is located.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student body of Rollins College is self-governed by the medium of the Student Council. Each person enrolled in the college automatically becomes a member of the Association. From each sorority and fraternity is sent one representative, and from the Independent group is sent four representatives, one of which must be a girl. From this body of sixteen members is chosen the Inner Council, which directs the work of the Student Council.

The Student Council controls the business affairs of the five departments of the Student Association, namely: Men's Athletics, Women's Athletics, Publications, Debating, and the Glee Club. Each year the Council receives a lump sum, the Student Association fees, which it divides as it sees fit among the various departments under its jurisdiction.

INNER COUNCIL

The sixteen representatives of the Student Council choose from among themselves five members, who with two faculty advisors are to make up the Inner Council. The duty of this body is to direct the work of the Student Council, and advise them on any issue that comes before them.

This year's Inner Council included: Paul Ney, Chairman, Virginia Jaekel, Vice-Chairman, Horace Abbott, Secretary, Norris Clark and Annajeanne Pendexter. Faculty advisors were: Ervin T. Brown, and Dr. Wendell Stone.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

Under the guidance and wise counsel of Chairman Helen Guernsey Sprague, Dean of Women, this committee arranges a calendar for the school year, so that there may be no conflict in the dates of all college dances and other important social functions.

This committee also handles matters of discipline relative to women students, and enforces rigid regulations regarding their conduct and proper chaperonage at all college functions. Other duties of this body consist in the passing of house rules governing fraternities, sororities and dormitories, and in enforcing discipline in cases of infractions.

THE CHAPEL STAFF

The development and the general oversight of the activities centering on the Chapel are entrusted to the Chapel Staff, consisting of twelve undergraduate students, Dean Charles Campbell of the Chapel, and his assistant, the Rev. William Denny, Jr.

The staff is the nucleus of a group of five committees each of which is ordained to carry out projects in a specific field. The Program Committee arranges the regular Sunday Morning Meditation Services, choosing speakers. At Christmas and at Thanksgiving, generous gifts of money and food were gathered and distributed by the Social Service Committee. The Publicity Committee arranges for the publication of announcements and news disseminating from the Chapel. One committee has charge of the handling of the congregation and appoints ushers. Finally, the Music Committee has been a salient factor in the success of the musical portion of the services.

PUBLICATIONS UNION

The Publications Union has concluded its fifth successful year. It was founded to control all students' publications and to advance their respective interests within the student body. The specific duties of this group include election of editors, associate editors, and business managers of the Sandspur, the TOMOKAN, and the Flamingo and supervision of all major business transactions made by these publications.

The personnel of the Union is composed of the above named heads of each member publication with the addition of the Advertising Commissioner and representative-at-large from the upper and lower divisions of the Student Association.

THE SANDSPUR

Now in its forty-second year and rapidly becoming one of the finer leading college weeklies, the "Rollins Sandspur" is the college paper. With little faculty supervision it is truly representative of the voice of the students themselves. This year the paper has made noticeable progress along lines of better make-up and quality of the news articles. Run on a strictly business basis, the Sandspur is largely supported by the advertising, although it receives an allotment from the Student Association yearly.

Its sharp, clear editorials clarify the current controversies and state the issues impartially. World news from the United Press is included in each issue so that its readers may have a selected group of the most important national and international happenings. Rollins news, however, takes up the greater part of this journal, and all college events are carefully recorded.

THE FLAMINGO

This is the literary magazine of Rollins College. It recently concluded an epoch-making year under the leadership of its editor, John Mills. Instead of publishing a small magazine as heretofore, the policy was changed to permit the publication to be of uniform magazine size. The result was five issues, which contained short stories of the highest standards.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

Omicron Delta Kappa is a national honorary campus activity fraternity for men. It aims to accord recognition and to give greater opportunities for service to those who achieve positions of prominence in campus activities. It seeks further to establish a more intimate relationship between administration and students in advancing the best interests of the college. Finally, it exists to foster and maintain healthy traditions among members of the student body.

O. D. K. recognizes five major fields of activity: Scholarship, Athletics, Student Government, Publications and Debating. Its membership is limited to six per cent of the male student body. Faculty members are elected by the whole group in recognition of conspicuous service.

PHI BETA

This is a National Honorary Fraternity for women, founded May 5, 1912, at Northwestern University. Its purpose is the promotion of music and drama in college campus life. It is through the medium of the arts and their relation to college life that Phi Beta seeks to teach its members to lead a life of service and to attain the highest type of womanhood.

The Theta chapter of Phi Beta was installed on the Rollins Campus in 1923, and has become a strong and influential group. Phi Beta has been helpful in its service to the college and to the community at large in its provision of talent for the dramatic productions and music. Phi Beta presented several programs on radio station WDBO in Orlando this year.

THE PHI SOCIETY

The Rollins Chapter of the Phi Society was started in 1934. It is a national honorary organization, sponsored by Phi Beta Kappa, and its purpose is to recognize scholarship accomplishment during the freshman year. The Phi Society was organized several years ago at Colgate, Western Reserve and Dennison. Since then it has spread to various colleges and universities throughout the country.

Ten members are chosen each year. Ultimately membership in the Phi Society at Rollins will be recognized as a spur towards the winning of a Phi Beta Kappa key, when the college is permitted to grant this award. At present it has probably the highest requirements of any honor society on the campus and is the only national society of purely a scholastic nature now represented here.

THE ORDER OF THE LIBRA

The Order of the Libra, a woman's honorary organization, was formed on the campus in January, 1935. Its purpose is to "recognize women who have attained a high standard in college activities, to serve as an inspiration to others, to bring together student leaders for a common purpose, and to form an understanding bond between faculty and students."

Plans are being made to nationalize this organization. The membership of Libra includes women prominent in athletics, scholarship, fine arts, publications, social leadership and other activities. Election of new members takes place twice a year, in November and in April, and at no time shall the quota tapped each year exceed three per cent of the women students.

PI KAPPA DELTA

The Florida Alpha Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, a national honorary forensic fraternity, has just closed a successful year. Members of this organization are selected on a basis of their records in intercollegiate debating, oratorical contests, and contests in extemporaneous and after-dinner speaking. Under the supervision of Professor Harry Raymond Pierce, the Alpha Chapter was represented at the national convention of Pi Kappa Delta which was held in Texas this spring. The Rollins delegates were: James Holden, David Bothe, Sterling Olmsted, Polly Raoul and Betty Test, who participated in debating, oration and extemporaneous speaking, respectively.

Those who were honored by membership in this fraternity this year were: David Bothe, James Holden, Marita Stueve, Sterling Olmsted, Reginald Clough, Betty Test, Polly Raoul.

DRAMATICS

For the past few years the work of the Dramatic Department has resulted in the favorable attention of dramatic groups in other parts of the country. In the Annie Russell Theatre, which is one of the finest equipped theatres in the country for its size, productions have been presented of a superior quality, not only in acting but in stagecraft.

Students majoring in dramatics have splendid opportunities for furthering their interests in these lines. From the work in the department two series of plays are presented each year. The Laboratory Productions are put on by students in the department. The Student Company Productions are open to all students on the campus on an extra-curricular basis. Participation in Student Company Productions qualifies the student for election to the Student Company of the year, an honor awarded for distinguished work in either the acting or the theatrical branch.

PI GAMMA MU

Pi Gamma Mu, the National Social Science Honor Society, was established at Rollins in the spring term of 1932. The purpose of Pi Gamma Mu is to inculcate and to further the ideals of scholarship and social service and to develop a scientific attitude and approach to all social problems as they arise. Although there is no limit to its membership numerically, it is the purpose of Pi Gamma Mu to restrict its selection of members to those who have shown prominence in some field of social service work. Students who are in the Upper Division, having a major in one of the social sciences, and who have maintained a high scholarship in their academic work, are eligible for initiation into the chapter.

THE ORATORICAL ASSOCIATION

The Oratorical Association has been in existence in Rollins since 1929. It is an organization designed especially for those who are interested in various forms of public speaking, and is in effect a laboratory of the speech arts. From its membership are usually selected the debate teams and the members of Pi Kappa Delta, the national forensic fraternity which maintains a chapter at Rollins.

Meetings were held every Tuesday evening at 7:30. The program included debates, readings, recitations, short sketches, and speeches presented by the members of the Association for the entertainment of other members and visitors.

WOMEN'S "R" CLUB

The Women's Physical Education Department at Rollins offers a wide range of activities including individual sports, seasonal team sports, aquatic sports and dancing, a health program with corrective and nutritive work, and numerous outdoor activities. In the various sports there is much keen competition to make the honorary varsity teams, which are chosen by a committee of five, consisting of the representative sports heads, two "R" club members, and two faculty members. Any girl making three honorary varsity teams, with a combination of team and individual sports, receives an "R" and automatically becomes a member of the "R" club. This organization governs the Women's Athletic Association.

Further awards given are the Rollins blazers, which are awarded only when a girl has made six honorary varsity teams. Miss Marjorie Weber has been for seven years the competent Director of Physical Education for women. Miss Doris Leavitt has been her assistant for two years.

THE "R" CLUB

For a man to receive a letter, sweater, service star, or emblem for his athletic accomplishments, and then to be included in the membership of the club, is to receive one of the highest honors the Student Association, through the athletic department, can bestow, and that is what the "R" club is. It consists of those men who have earned their letter in the various major and minor sports, including football, basketball, baseball, golf, tennis and swimming.

At the close of the football season, this honorary organization sponsors a banquet, at which time the football men are presented with sweaters and letters in recognition for their good sportsmanship. In accordance with an annual custom, the "R" club assists in the selection of the year's outstanding athlete, the man who has distinguished himself not only in different sports but has also, because of his participation, contributed most to the upholding of the spirit and reputation of Rollins College.

ROLLINS OCTETTE

The Octette under the able direction of Mr. Honaas and the fine management of Lyman Greaves has presented many worthwhile programs during the year. Among the various places they have sung are the Virginia Inn, the Alabama Hotel, the Indian River Hotel and Vespers. They sponsored a radio broadcast over WDBO which featured only Octette members. The Octette also entertained for the Southern Association of Teachers, the Irving Bachelor Essay Contest, the Rollins Fund Drive and the Easter Communion Service.

THE ROLLINS A CAPELLA CHOIR

This musical organization directed by Choirmaster Christopher Honaas, has just completed its fifth season. It has taken a remarkably prominent place in the choral and musical art of the college. The choir leads the Chapel Meditation Service every Sunday morning, and is heard at the convocation and other formal services of the college.

Early in February the choir was featured in a half-hour broadcast on WDBO. Following this they presented a full concert program at the Chapel. The Choir also assisted at the Bach Festival, singing "Magnificat," as well as singing at the President's Convocation. The climax to their successful season was their appearance with the Symphony Orchestra in April.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

To further the knowledge of France, the French people, and their literature, constitutes the chief aim of the club. It is a member of the Federation de l'Alliance Francais aux Etats-Unis et au Canada, which is an international organization consisting approximately of two hundred and fifty organizations.

Meetings are held bi-monthly, frequently at the home of some member or at one of the hotels in town. The association has often been able to secure distinguished visitors to speak before the meeting. This year the club presented a play for Seminar A in the Annie Russell Theatre. Misses Nancy Poeller and Priscilla Smith with Mr. James Lambert comprised the cast.

THE GERMAN CLUB

Under the personal supervision and leadership of Herr Dr. Feuerstein, the Rollins German Club completed a year of enthusiastic study of oral and written German. Many great Teuton masterpieces were discussed and commented upon, and the conversations carried on in German were stimulating as well as productive of original thoughts and ideas. The club fills the needs of the advanced students in that it enables them to carry their researches further than the classroom; for those less advanced, it supplies thorough training in German diction, bringing about an eventual mastery of this phase of the subject.

Weekly meetings of the club are conducted by member students, who not only learn the technique of presiding, but also come to understand the language as more than classroom work. The programs given are interesting and varied, and never fail to draw a large attendance from the club membership.

THE SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club is largely composed of those students having a fluent knowledge of the Spanish language. However, the group is open to all students who have had one complete year of Spanish. The meetings, which are held bi-monthly, cover all phases of Spanish culture. The purpose of the club is to stimulate an active interest in Spanish culture, the people, and their contributions to the civilization of the world in the past and the present. This purpose has been attained by the club programs which are arranged by the students. The programs have featured the works of modern Spanish composers, the art of Spanish painters, current events and topics of historical value and interest. In the spring a program was presented by the Spanish Club in Seminar A.

THE ROLLINS STUDIO CLUB

The Rollins Studio Club is an organization for students who are interested in the discussion of developments in the world of art. It is affiliated with the American Federation of Art, which has headquarters in Washington, D. C., and with the Florida Federation of Art. The membership of the club is not limited, and the discussions in the meetings, largely concerned with the appreciation of art and its value in the world today, are often led by invited speakers and members of the faculty.

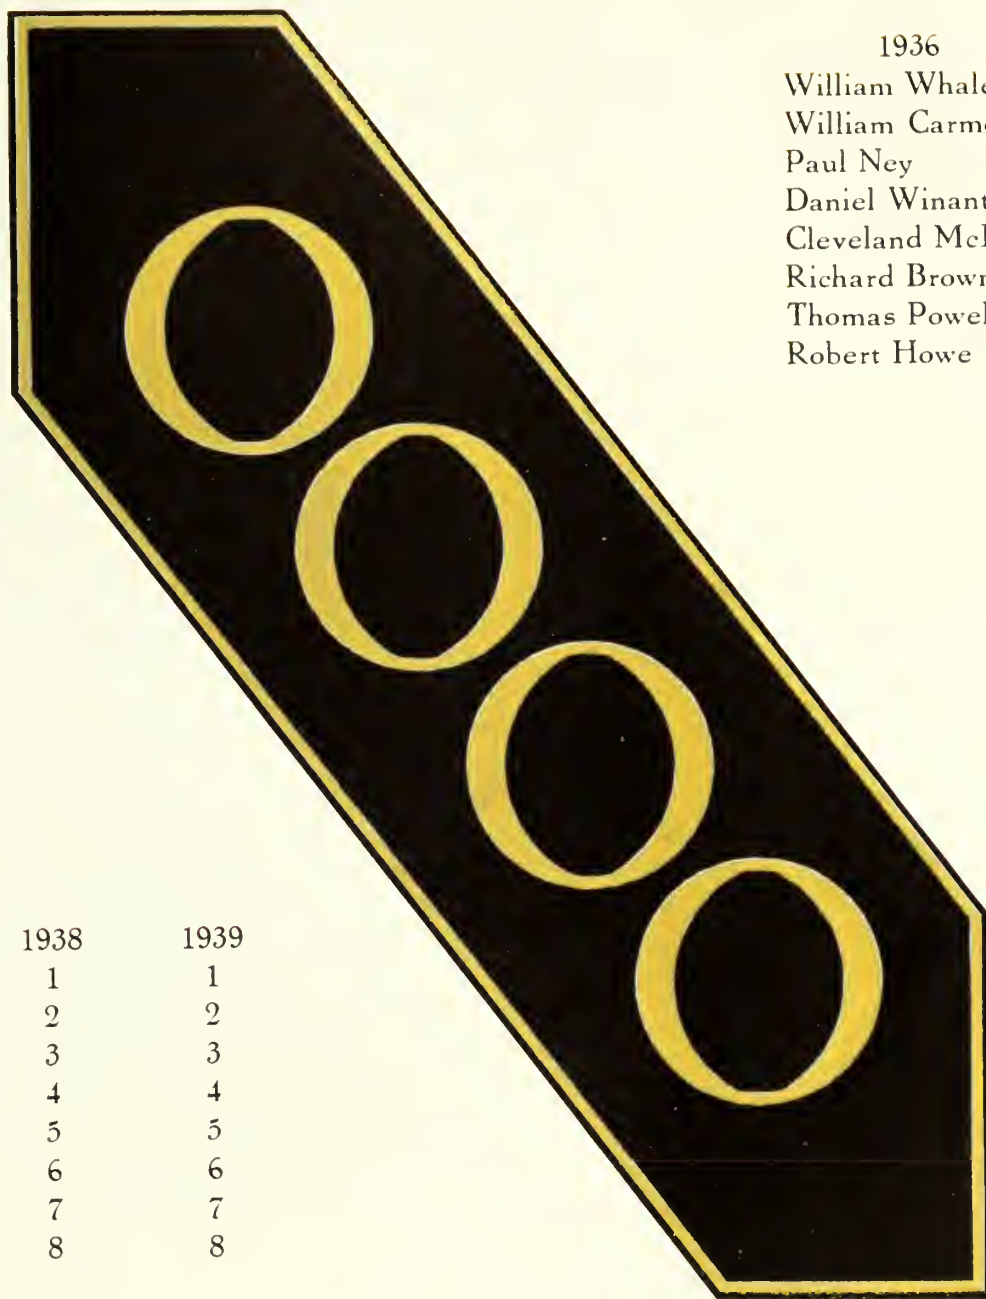

This year Elizabet Richards served as president and Howard Showalter as Secretary-Treasurer. The club's faculty advisor is Mr. Hugh McKean. Several students have received Allied Arts awards for oil paintings, sculpture, charcoal work and interior decorating.

THE COLLEGE COMMONS

The College Commons, commonly known as the Beanery, has within its walls an organization called the College Commons Club. Every year this closely knit organization welcomes the whole college to a famous function known as the Beanery Ball. Outside of this activity, few of its designs and customs are known. An annual award is given to the waiter making the most progress during the year.

FRATERNITIES

THE INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

Rollins is peculiarly fortunate in having a group of fraternities on its campus which co-operate and fraternize admirably. However, there are times of stress, such as the rushing season, when there has been a certain amount of regulation to prevent clashes in the competition between groups. It is at this time that the organization known as the Interfraternity Council functions. It is made up of ten members, each being elected to represent his respective fraternity. The presidential chair rotates among the fraternities in the order of their founding, as do other executive positions.

This year harmony was so complete among fraternities that very few meetings were needed to settle the problems. The 1935-36 officers were: Paul R. Parker, President, Allan Stoddard, Secretary, and Daniel Winant, Treasurer. Members this year were: William A. Carmody, R. Siley Vario, Kappa Alpha; James F. Holden, Bonar D. Collinson, Phi Delta Theta; Paul R. Parker, Carl T. Goeller, Rho Lambda Nu; Allan Stoddard, William E. Barr, Theta Kappa Nu; Daniel Winant, Bryant H. Prentice, X Club.

NATIONAL PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

This organization is composed of two representatives from each of the sororities on campus. The chief aim of this group is to promote a feeling of goodwill among the women's fraternities. The Council regulates all rushing and pledging rules and co-operates with the college in settling any group questions which may arise.

ATHLETICS

Coach
McDowell

Lack of reserves, injuries, and the opposition of heavier and more powerful teams made the Rollins 1935 football season perhaps the least successful of recent years. Each contest was hard-fought to the final whistle, however, and the games were marked by outstanding exhibitions of individual play. Proof of this lies in the fact that three of the men were placed on the "Florida All-Little Four Team." These men were Eliot Baker, linesman; Tom Powell, end; George Miller, back; and Ed Levy, end; honorable mention. Seniors who played their last game for Rollins are: Tom Powell, Bill Carmody, Jim Mobley, Bob Howe, Bob Johnson, and Danny Winant.

Interest in football was heightened this year by the innovation of the Steel Jug to be presented annually to the winner of the Rollins-Miami game, and by the announcement of the Boyce Williams Trophy to be presented next year to the best blocker on the Rollins Squad.

The Freshman team turned in an outstanding record with three victories out of four games, winning from the strong Miami Freshmen and four days later overcoming the Stetson yearlings in a hard-fought contest. Kirby, Dennis, Daunis and Hume were the outstanding players for the Freshmen.

BASEBALL

This year the Rollins nine have had a most successful season. Jim Mobley accomplished moundsman of last season and Carl Kettles did most of the pitching, with Don Murray receiving. Ed Levy held down first base position with Richard Gillespie at second. Jerry Kirby, another veteran retained his position as stop. We commend Georgie Miller for his record of home runs, and the team as a whole for their splendid display of cooperation.

CREW

Opening the crew season with the innovation of Intermural Rowing, Coach Bradley attracted more men to the lakes than ever before in the history of the sport.

In the Intermural round robin the Rollins Hall four won the championship with the Phi Delta oarsmen a strong second. In the winning boat were: A. King MacRury, bow; Jack Barrington, number 3; Murray G. Slosburg, number 2; Henry Garrigues, stroke, and Ed Strongin, cox.

The Varsity eight, which traveled to the Marietta regatta at Marietta College on May 27 and rowed Manhattan College on the Harlem. June first, was stroked by Captain Richard Brown, with H. P. Abbott, number 7; Ralph Little, number 6; Don Matthews, number 5; Warren Hume, number 4; George Waddell, number 3; Bill Scheu, number 2; Wilson Scanlon, bow and Sally Stearns, cox.

Rollins 1936 Crew Schedule

FENCING

Strengthened by the advent of Don Cetrulo, the Rollins Varsity Fencing team formed around a nucleus of Cetrulo, Niki Karnilow and Gene Townsend to win a majority of its matches and return from its northern trip with a victory over the Princeton University Varsity swordsmen sticking like a feather from its cap.

The team started its season early with a Christmas trip up to the University of South Carolina. In a return match on the shore of Lake Virginia the Tar swordsmen took a second victory from the Carolinians and then defeated the University of Georgia team before leaving for the annual northern swing.

Winning over Princeton, the team went on to tie City College of New York in a hard-fought battle, before bowing to the Army. West Point, officials, however, ruled that Rollins and Notre Dame were the only two colleges out of their immediate district worthy of meeting them again the following year. The team lost to Navy and New York University in a close match.

TENNIS

Strengthened by the addition of four new players and with all the stars of last season returning, the Rollins Varsity Tennis squad promised to be one of the strongest in the history of the sport. But lack of practice and poor court facilities resulted in an unsuccessful season.

Captain Hank Lauterbach was the number one player and won the majority of his matches in intercollegiate play. He was supported by Bob Vogel as number two man, Art Brownell, a newcomer from Westminster College in Pennsylvania, as number three, Baron Niki Hauser, exchange student from Austria, number four, and Volney Bragg and Bill Carmody, numbers five and six.

After opening the season with a victory over the Orlando Tennis Club the team was only able to win two out of its eight matches, dropping contest to the University of Miami, the University of Florida twice, St. Petersburg Junior College and Stetson University. With Stetson the Tar netmen split in return matches, winning the first on their home courts, and they split with St. Petersburg Junior College, winning in the first match.

DICK LEE

LEAH BARTLETT

Here goes, Bartlett, the last bit of writing I shall ever do for a college publication. I got myself into it and good, bad, or indifferent I'll take a crack at finishing what I started. You can re-write it, re-build it, tear it to pieces, do whatever you like, and I won't care. Once you get this thing I am through with it . . .

October 2 . . .

Along comes October and the raw material starts drifting in. Voices, familiar voices, are heard, voices that in the Spring before said "Good-bye to Rollins for good and all," voices that just said "Good-bye," voices with an unfamiliar ring that never spoke of Rollins during the Spring, that never thought of Rollins until College Board Reports came in. They all start coming in, and the Rat Committee takes on the job of blending the strange new voices into a whole. They finally achieve it. Rec Hall takes a lot of punishment. Its old rafters rock under each timid cheer. At last the Freshmen know the cheers; they know the songs too . . . Thank God they do . . . Someone has to cheer at football games and the old students forget so quickly.

At last the voices become faces, the faces become names. The strangeness begins to wear away. Out of the smoke at Harper's new familiar faces loom. History repeats itself. Slot machines chatter, football bleachers are crowded, and after the games, every place is crowded.

Classes begin in earnest. Rushing begins. Classes wait. The practical things of life come first. Rumors start traveling; dirty rushing; marriage in Cloverleaf; Spence engaged; Lonsdale's speedboat; Blunden's aquaplaneing; Lambert's harem . . . Rat Court goes maudlin. The tinsel wears off. "Footnotes" annoy, society editor turns scandal monger, beanery, classes, rush dates, dances, football games, Thank God the girls pledge early, Pan Hell breaks loose.

All the senses satisfied by watching Ted Reed play slot machines, hearing Jack Deeves' saxophone, eating Beanery food, smelling cauliflower, feeling sand underfoot. Life settles into the mid-term rut. The library bulges. Freshman girls aren't as bad as they looked or as good as we hoped. The pairing off begins. Twenty per cent go steady. More rumors. Garrigues' and Barrington's fight to the finish with Bamberger officiating.

November 6 . . .

At last men's rushing is over. We can once more speak to our friends in other frats. We can mention other than our own fraternity brothers in our columns. We can go to classes. Comstock invests in a red racer. Rollins buys out the bronze plaque industry and every morning finds a new stone about to become a tradition. Holt Avenue appears. The Frosh enjoy Kid Day with much picture taking to the delight of no one but the Frosh. Bonfire and the Freshmen are free. Rat Court members are as effective as a vice-president.

November 13 . . .

Rumors of new buildings. Great place for rumors, Rollins. O. D. K. plans a Student Union. The plan mysteriously disappears. O. D. K. wants a dance floor. Ben Rowe quotes prices and the plan is changed. What a lovely dance hall Rec Hall will make.

November 27 . . .

Comes the Miami Game. Miller and Kettles return with red hair. The Thetas pledge and at least they are happy. Somebody starts a straw political vote and discovers that Rollins is definitely Republican. Not long till Xmas. Chapel drive begins, H. P. Abbott is in his element. Packing, getting addresses, a wet trip north, and Xmas is no longer a dream.

January 8 . . .

Vacation is over and back in Florida the snow seems beautiful. Excuses as to why you never got around to calling on so and so. Tall tales of parties, ice, dates, etc. Someone dug a lot of holes around campus during vacation. New buildings? Yes, new buildings. Thank God for Roosevelt, the New Deal, Holt's pull, the greater glory of Rollins, of Orange County, of Florida.

January 15 . . .

January 22 . . .

O. D. K. lures R. Brown, Reg Clough and Bill Whalen into the fold. Cold weather is here. Infirmary full, cold enough for all. Rain, basketball in Rec Hall, Rollins starts raising a fund. County Fair comes and goes. The Sandspur offers fifteen bucks for a slogan. The big shots talk to boys and girls. A vote of confidence from Orange County.

February 5 . . .

Bridge benefits become epidemic, more advertising for Rho Lambda Nu-Sigma Nu. Theft of cups from all the Frats. Talk about rumors? The Flamingo publishes Metamorphoses, two never to be forgotten lines. Atwood goes in for red hair. Bastien remains blond for a whole week. Student Animated Magazine, oh well!

March 4 . . .

Rollins goes air-minded. Righter buys a plane. Homan draws pictures on his car. Miller misses the Chapel tower again. No rain for two whole days. G men appear in Pierce Arrow Twelves. The town is lousy with them. Roosevelt is coming.

March 18 . . .

Roosevelt is delayed . . . Roosevelt isn't coming . . . Roosevelt times himself to break up vacation. Eleanor is with him. He gets a degree. She gets a medal. The roar of many cannons and it is all over. Rollins is still Republican.

April 1 . . .

Publications Elections held. Congratulations all around. Easter and the sunrise service at Bok Tower. Ann White and Pete Potter with Bunnies in their hands and sleep in their eyes. Mink Whitelaw and Bill Law without Bunnies.

O. K., Leah, take it away. This is not only my best effort. It is my sole effort. If it helps you any I'll be surprised. But it's the best I can do. The thrill is gone.

Thanx Richard—this is indeed a noble effort. I have reread it, studied it, changed it, rewritten it, wept over it, neglected it—only to return to it. (You can't live in the same house with the editor without "returning to it," I found)—wondering if you ever had a "thrill." The first time I read it, it just wasn't what I wanted, but after writing it myself a couple of dozen times I think it is simply made to order. Besides, I'd hate to leave anything as permanently incriminating as this as my last, my only, "soul" effort. Have fun—Leah.
